

The man, Bill, who wrote the first part is a good friend of ours. I don't know who David Rushton is, but what he wrote is certainly correct.

Burt Aronsen, November 7, 2009.

In my opinion this article by David Rushton is dead on in his analysis of our misunderstandings of their faith in following their Koran. Americans have seldom in the past put an effort into understanding their enemies. This is an enemy that we have to understand and give them a very close scrutiny or they will be standing among us in a crowd with an explosive laden vest strapped to them before we know it. In our laws it says we are a nation that guarantees freedom of religion but is it a viable religion when it delivers a message to kill those who do not believe their beliefs? The muslim religion is said to be one of peace yet their Koran is one that delivers a much different message. They deserve very close scrutiny to say the very least. My friend Michael talked with the shooter not more than 3 hours before he delivered his murderous actions and said he was completely calm. He did say that the Major was very good at his work and was respected for that. Did he 'snap' as we are led to believe or did he merely follow the guidelines dictated by his religion? I believe the later. Bill

Why is Fort Hood a Surprise?

By David Rushton Friday, November 6, 2009

I have long been mystified as to why Americans and Canadians do not understand Islam. It is very simple. While most Christians and Jews pay only lip service to their Bibles, the Muslims believe in the Koran with every part of their being. They rise before dawn to pray and they pray five times a day. They mean business in their worship of the false god Allah.

They believe in every verse of the koran and the Hadith. But Americans have never read the koran so they are shocked by such carnage as was caused at Fort Hood.

So let me quote just a few verses from the Koran. Are you ready?

Infidels (unbelievers) are the Muslim's undoubted enemies (Sura 4:101).

This ideal is instilled in the minds and hearts of Muslim children by their mothers.

Muslims are to besiege them and lie in ambush everywhere for them.

(Sura 9:5) That's us they are to besiege because we do not believe in and follow the teachings of Mohammed.

Seize them and put them to death wherever you find them, kill them wherever you find them, seek out the enemies of Islam relentlessly" (Sura 4:90)

I will instill terror into the hearts of the unbelievers, Smite ye above their necks and smite all their finger tips of them. (Koran 8:12)

Take not Jews and Christians for friends. They are friends to one another. He who takes them for friends is one of them.” Sura 5:51

Believers, make war on the infidels who are your neighbors and let them find you rigorous. (Sura 9:123).

Allah loves those who “fight for his cause” (Sura 61:3).

If a Muslim does not go to war, Allah will punish him. (Sura 9:39)

Muslims are to be “ruthless to unbelievers but love Muslims (Sura 48:29).

Kill any person you wish if it be a “just cause.” (Sura 6:152)

“I have been ordered to fight with people till they say, none has the right to be worshipped but Allah ‘’ Hadith 4:196

Mohammed also said, Know that paradise is under the shade of the swords.’’ Hadith vol. 4:73

On July 4, 2002, a Muslim taxi driver in Los Angeles shot to death two people at the El Al terminal in LAX and three more were wounded. For weeks thereafter Psychologists and Psychiatrists wondered why this apparently peaceful man had killed these people. But the answer was very clearly pinned to his front door that morning. A note on the door said simply “Read the Koran.”

A few years earlier a Muslim soldier Hassan Akbar in Kuwait hurled a grenade into a tent full of American Soldiers. Two officers were killed and 14 injured. Everybody wondered what prompted him to do it. Simple, he had been reading the Koran and he believed those soldiers were his enemies.

So why waste time trying to discover what prompted Major Nidal Malik to open fire at Fort Hood. He was a Muslim and he believed in the Koran. The only mystery to me is why the army would allow any Muslim to be a member. The Koran clearly states Infidels (unbelievers) are the Muslims’ undoubted enemies. Yes, we Christians and Jews are their enemies. We did not say that, they did.

Is it not enough to remember how many Jews have been killed in Israel by Muslims who boarded their buses and entered their restaurants with bombs? Why is it so hard for our leaders to understand that Muslims are determined to kill unbelievers and take over their countries for their fictitious god Allah.

I do not hate the Muslims. In fact I believe they are to be pitied because they are first victims of this terrible cult of war and hatred. I do not suggest that we should start killing Muslims. I do think they need to be controlled in every situation and never given opportunity to serve in our armed forces or police. They consider us their enemies and feel it is their duty to kill anyone who does not bow the knee to Allah. By the way I have deliberately used lower case for Allah, and koran because neither is worthy of capitalization.

I wish that this horrific incident would bring Americans and Canadians back to God. What will it take? Another 9-11? No that didn't do it either. I don't know what will. God is never mentioned anymore in our politically correct system because our leaders are afraid of offending those who believe in Allah. Yet Muslims shout Allahu Akbar!" Meaning "Our god is greater than your God." Well I have news for you. Not only is no God greater than our God, but in fact there is no other God but our God. So let's stand up and fight for Him.
